

Booking form for visit to
The National Horseracing Museum, Newmarket
Saturday 17 February 2024

Full day outing by coach.

The coach will leave Bushey Centre car park at 9.00am, to arrive at Newmarket at about 11.00am, and departs Newmarket at 3.30pm for return to Bushey.

We shall visit the National Horseracing Museum, where Lucy Kemp-Welch's paintings on loan from both Bushey Museum and other museums and galleries around the country are displayed in the exhibition 'In her own voice: The art of Lucy Kemp-Welch (1860-1958)'.
The exhibition (previously at the Russell Cotes Museum Bournemouth) is in the historic Palace House, King Charles II's former palace and stable yards in central Newmarket. The galleries also contain works by Stubbs, Landseer, Munning among many others.

The National Horseracing Museum in the Trainer's House and King's Yard Galleries, displays art and memorabilia relating to the history and science of horseracing.

Refreshments are available at the Museum.
